

The center has played an integral role in guiding UCI's Olive Tree Initiative, a student group which promotes peace in the Middle East through open dialogue. Photo courtesy of Olive Tree Initiative.

CENTER FOR CITIZEN PEACEBUILDING

INVESTIGATE

Since 1999, the Center for Citizen Peacebuilding has been working with researchers, students and ordinary citizens around the world to explore paths to peace and reconciliation, and to share findings with the community.

The center conducts and supports research through fellowships, conferences and hands-on participation in citizen peacebuilding.

INNOVATE

The center offers an academic program in conflict analysis and resolution for UCI students, and training in mediation and negotiation in a wide variety of contexts, from local gang intervention programs to international negotiation and mediation.

IMPACT

The center encourages and supports citizen peacebuilding in conflict zones around the globe, ranging from the Middle East to Northern Ireland, and from the former Soviet Union to Bosnia/Herzegovina.

Projects include comparative case studies in citizen peacebuilding; Kugelman faculty and graduate student fellowships; research seminars & public lectures; Olive Tree Initiative research; certificate program in conflict analysis and resolution; gang intervention training in mediation and negotiation; facilitation of cross-conflict dialogues locally and internationally; and citizen peacebuilding awards

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

A gift to the center has the power to transform individuals and communities and truly make a difference. Contact us today or visit us online at www.socsci.uci.edu to learn how past donations have helped fund our future leaders.